Instructions to Rooters

1. When cheerleader holds up hand or megaphone to announce yell or song, there should be absolute quietness.
2. Learn all of the songs and yells.
3. Always watch and follow cheerleaders when they are leading songs and yells.
4. Always clap for a player of either team as he leaves the field.
5. Whether the "Gents" or winning or losing—keep up the pep.
6. Use your hands as a megaphone so that the voice will carry.
7. Co-operate with cheerleaders when they are putting on stunts and special yells.
8. Never yell when one side is calling signals.
9. Never "hoot" at decisions of the referee.
10. Attend all pep meetings and football games—(sit in the cheering section.)
11. Keep up the old pep, all during the game by talking to the "Gents."
12. Wear your colors to all football games.
13. When the band is playing—keep time by clapping hands.
14. Make lots of noise after every song and yell.

The "Gents" were the S.I.A.A. Champions last year (1926). Let's do our part to help them win the championship again this year.

Songs

I

ALMA MATER

Where the sleepy, silver bayou
Gleams among the pines,
Watching o'er the throbbing city
Alma Mater shines.
(Chorus)

Like a wave the mighty city
Surges at thy feet,
Guide it, train it, teach it wisdom,
Alma Mater sweet.
(Chorus)

Green the boughs that rustle 'round thee
On thy stately crest;
Greener is our memory of thee—
Alma Mater blest.

(Chorus)

Forward, forward, Centenary
Time and tide may fail;
But our hearts shall love thee ever—
Centenary hail.

In the local Cemetery.

CENTENARY HAS A GENTLEMAN

(To the tune of "Oh! How He Rambled")

Centenary has a Gentleman
With long and straight black hair
Ruston has a bull dog—
Now won't that make a pair
When they Get together there'll surely be a scrap.
Just watch that Centenary Gentleman run that bull dog off the map.

(CHORUS)

Oh' well, they rambled—they rambled
They rambled all around, in and out of town—
Oh! well, they rambled—they rambled
They rambled till that Gentleman cut him down.
